

Human Rights Course

Equality. Justice. Dignity.

Our Human Rights course builds awareness and understanding of fundamental rights, freedoms, and responsibilities. It empowers learners to advocate for fairness, justice, and equality in society and workplaces.

What You Will Learn

- Introduction to Human Rights – history and principles.
- International Declarations & Laws – UN and global frameworks.
- Rights in the Workplace – fair treatment and equal opportunity.
- Gender Equality & Non-Discrimination – promoting inclusion.
- Rights of Vulnerable Groups – children, minorities, and differently-abled persons.
- Human Rights Advocacy – strategies for awareness and action.

Why Choose This Course?

- Develops strong ethical and social awareness
- Applicable in law, education, and community service
- Encourages responsible citizenship
- Certificate upon completion

Who Can Join?

- Students of law, sociology, and political science
- Teachers and educators
- Community and social workers
- Anyone passionate about justice and equality

Course Outcome

- Understand and explain key human rights principles
- Promote inclusion and equality in various settings
- Support advocacy and awareness initiatives
- Contribute to creating fair and just communities